Cllr Chidgey gave his apologies as his requested to take time off had been refused by his employers and he would be unable to attend to represent the Council at the Planning Committee Meeting. Cllr Kelsey will be representing the Stopit as an objector and she was happy to represent the Parish Council as well. The Clerk will contact Norfolk County Council to see if she is able to do this. Cllr Chidgey will contact the Stopit committee to see if somebody else would be willing to speak on their behalf if Cllr Kelsey is unable to represent both parties. If this is not possible Cllr Johnson and Cllr Riley both offered to speak on the Council's behalf.

County Councillor Barry Stone has confirmed his attendance and will speak as an objector. The Council have not heard if District Cllr Evans will be in attendance.

The Council agreed that the following points would need to be put across at the meeting:

Concerns of dust

Impact on church

Noise

100m buffer zone, this significantly reduces the amount gravel extracted.

Mineral requirements for Norfolk County Council have already been exceeded

Human Factor

Damage to tourism
